

Action Taken Report by IQAC, Sri Aurobindo College, New Delhi for the year 2020-21

In response to the valuable feedback gathered on various aspects of the curriculum and infrastructure IQAC has proactively initiated several measures to enhance the overall academic and campus experience. The feedback received encompassed diverse areas such as course content, evaluation methods, infrastructure facilities, and extracurricular amenities.

Curriculum Enhancement:

- Ensuring effective understanding of fundamental concepts and preparing students for their academic and professional pursuits through enhanced theoretical comprehension via tailored teaching approaches.
- Enriching the learning process by revamping teaching methodologies and classroom practices to better align with industry standards.
- Tailoring assessment methods, including assignments, quizzes, projects, and examinations, to course objectives, ensuring thorough evaluation of student performance.
- Fostering hands-on skill development essential for real-world application by implementing innovative lab experiments and practical exercises to complement theoretical understanding.

Infrastructure Development:

- Optimized space utilization across campus facilities to accommodate various academic, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities.
- Enhanced the ambience of campus facilities through aesthetic improvements and maintenance initiatives.
- Improved accessibility and resources in the library, including the acquisition of new books, journals, and digital resources to support research and academic inquiry.
- Upgraded sports grounds with modern facilities and equipment to promote physical fitness and recreational activities among students.

Conclusion:

The proactive measures undertaken by IQAC, Sri Aurobindo College underscore our commitment to continuous improvement and providing a conducive learning environment for our students. Through collaborative efforts and strategic interventions, we aim to address the needs and preferences of our stakeholders effectively, thereby enriching the academic experience and fostering holistic development within our college community. Moving forward, we remain dedicated to soliciting and acting upon feedback constructively, ensuring that Sri Aurobindo College continues to uphold its reputation for excellence in education and campus life.
