

SAC NCC COY, 4DBN ACTIVITIES (2023-24)

Hausla'24 – ANNUAL NCC FEST

Every year, Sri Aurobindo College NCC Company comes alive with its flagship fest “Hausla” — a celebration where discipline meets dynamism, and youthful energy merges with the timeless values of patriotism, leadership, and cultural pride. More than just an event, Hausla is an experience that reflects the soul of NCC cadets — courageous, committed, and united.

Combat – Strength in Action

The heartbeat of Hausla is Combat, where cadets push their limits in strength, agility, and tactical skill. With unarmed combat demonstrations, self-defense techniques, and swift takedowns, the event embodies courage under pressure. It's not merely about power — it's about precision, discipline, and the readiness to face challenges head-on.

NIAP – Voices for a Cause

The National Integration Awareness Programme (NIAP) stands as Hausla's conscience. This year's theme, “Clean Yamuna is Very Important”, turned the stage into a platform for awareness and action. Through nukkad nataks, skits, songs, and cultural displays, cadets shed light on pollution, conservation, and the Yamuna's deep cultural importance — urging society to unite for the river's revival.

Piloting – The Face of Discipline

From the very moment guests arrive, they are welcomed by the Piloting team. With crisp uniforms, steady posture, and respectful gestures, these cadets embody discipline and courtesy. They represent the pride of the Company, ensuring every dignitary and faculty member feels the warmth of NCC's hospitality.

Guard of Honour – Tradition and Respect

Nothing speaks of NCC's values better than the Guard of Honour. Executed with flawless drill movements and unshakable discipline, cadets paid tribute to the Chief Guest, blending military precision with heartfelt respect — a timeless symbol of honour.

Cultural Performances – Colours of India

Hausla is not just about drills and discipline — it's also about celebrating India's diversity. Dance, music, and theatre from different colleges filled the stage with colour and energy, reminding everyone that our strength lies in Unity in Diversity.

Squad Drill, DST & Quarter Guard – The Test of Teamwork

Competitions like Squad Drill, DST, and Quarter Guard turned the parade ground into an arena of discipline and synchronization. Marching in unison, executing commands with precision, or voicing ideas through group songs and motivational talks — cadets showcased the perfect blend of teamwork and leadership.
