

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON

“Empowering Rural Communities: Agrarian Politics and the Legacy of Chaudhary Charan Singh towards Viksit Bharat”

December 22-23, 2025

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Sri Aurobindo College, established in 1972 as a constituent organ of University of Delhi, is a premier institution of higher education today. Catering to the intellectual aspirations of PG and UG (Science, Commerce, Humanities) students from all the nooks and corners of India and beyond, the college commemorates and celebrates and propagates the spiritual intellectual legacy of Sri Aurobindo, a seer – an avant-garde seer among seers, and a patriot’s patron. The college engages its pupils through myriad activities, honing their creativity and thinking to their fullest potential, thereby handing them back to society after passing out as conscientious and responsible citizens and sensible human beings
